Welcome to the exciting new

Imagine being able to use the access and distribution power of the Internet to view and share your favorite pictures with family and friends – anywhere, anytime. Now you can do it with an exciting service from Kodak. An Internet service that makes sharing your pictures simple, convenient, and fun! Introducing the KODAK Picture Network, a convenient on-line service that offers fascinating, new alternatives for using your pictures. And it makes sharing them more convenient than ever. Simply request this service at your nearest participating KODAK Premium Processing retailer when you take your film to be processed.

As a member of the KODAK Picture Network, you can also upload your favorite digital pictures from your computer's hard drive. Capture them with KODAK DIGITAL SCIENCE™ Cameras and Scanners, or have your photos converted into high-quality digital pictures and saved on KODAK IMAGE MAGIC FLASHPIX CD and Picture Disk Plus. There's almost no limit to the fun you can have with your digital pictures.

KODAK Picture Network

To have your pictures placed on-line, simply check off the box for KODAK Picture Network on the photofinishing bag when you drop off your film for processing (available at most KODAK Premium Processing retailers). The first time you visit the KODAK Picture Network to claim your pictures, you'll be invited to become a member through a simple on-line registration for a free trial period.

The KODAK Picture Network provides easy access to your pictures in a password-protected account. When they're on-line, you can view them whenever and wherever it's most convenient. With a few clicks of a mouse, you can e-mail pictures to family and friends using our exclusive KODAK DIGITAL SCIENCE Picture Postcard Software. Or you can request reprints on-line. As a member of the KODAK Picture Network, you can also upload your favorite digital pictures from your digital camera or scanner. Sharing your favorite pictures has never been so simple!
